

Rennie Mackintosh, Whisky and Lochs Tour

Tour 2

- Hill House
- Loch Lomond
- Glengoyne Distillery

Enjoy the cream of Scotland's finest architecture and scenery as well as the taste of a wee dram of single malt whisky from Scotland's most beautiful distillery.

On leaving Glasgow we cross the Firth of Clyde and make for the town of Helensburgh and Hill House. This masterpiece of innovative Scottish architecture was designed by Charles Rennie Mackintosh in 1904.

Our next port of call is at the beautiful village of Luss on the bonnie banks of Loch Lomond.

From Luss we head past the town of Balloch towards Glengoyne, Scotland's most beautiful distillery for our tour and a free taste of single malt whisky.
