

Ayrshire Explorer Tour

Tour 6

- River Clyde
- Burns Country
- Culzean Castle

Don't forget to bring your camera on this photographic extravaganza along the River Clyde and down the Ayrshire coast.

Driving along the River Clyde we stop for a photoshoot and take in the stunning view from the Greenock Free French Memorial. Following the coast road we stop for refreshments at the seaside resort of Largs.

Then its on to Alloway, the birthplace of Scotland's National Bard, Robert Burns. Here we have the opportunity to visit Burns Cottage and take lunch at the Burns Heritage Centre.

Travelling along the Electric Brae we experience the world famous optical illusion. finally we visit Culzean Castle and Country park, seat of the Clan Kennedy.

BOOK NOW

Tour departs from your hotel

Cost:

Full day tours from £250 per vehicle - up to 8 passengers

Half day tours from £150 per vehicle - up to 8 passengers

Includes vehicle, driver and guiding services.

(Does not include entry to visitor attractions)

