

Black Prince in Greenock

Things were a bit hurried today, but please be assured we are so grateful for your help with our transfers to join the Black Prince in Greenock and of course our return trip to Largs.

I will sing your praises to all I know and will contact you again for help at the first opportunity.

Thanks again.

- Margaret Greer