

Courteous and personable service

I just wanted to send a big thanks to George for his courteous and personable service during our recent trip to Scotland. My wife and I travelled with our elderly parents and George went out of his way to make the experience memorable. His patience, good humour and local knowledge enhanced our experience. I would strongly recommend George, reasonable rates, professional service and impeccable timing, all you could ask for!

- Laurie Crouse, Canada